

Thirsk Community Primary School

Happy Easter

This week has been a really busy week for everyone in school. Firstly well done to everyone in Nursery who made an Easter bonnet. It was fantastic to see the children parading around the Early Years area of the school wearing their superb hats! There are some wonderful pictures later in the newsletter. Secondly well done to everyone involved in the decorate an Easter egg competition. The eggs were as always simply brilliant with some really imaginative and current ideas, such as the Royal Wedding 'Prince HENry and EGGgan Markle!' and the Winter Olympics.

Well done also to all of our pupils of the term –it is always a really special assembly and was lovely to see the pupils that had been chosen for these awards.

Earlier this week we had a visit from the Revd Derick Simpson who shared the Easter Story in Assembly.

Finally we wish everyone a restful and enjoyable Easter Holiday and we look forward to welcoming everyone back to school on Tuesday 17th April

99 clubbers: Well done to Daisy, Jamie, Isaac, Jacob and George great timetable knowledge!
