Thirsk Community Primary School

15.12.2017

Christmas Fayre

Thank you to everyone that came along last Friday night to the school Christmas Fayre. It was great to see so many of you braving the cold weather to come and support this event. Thanks to the hard work of the PTA and your generosity over £1150 was raised!

Can we also say a massive thank you to the PTA for enabling us to attend the Panto again this year, everyone enjoyed it. Thank You

Carols by torchlight

On Wednesday evening we are have a carols by torchlight event. The Thirsk brass band are going to lead us in singing some Christmas carols. This is a free event and we hope that it will be well supported. Please wrap up warm, bring a torch and head on to the playground for a 6.30pm start. Feel free to bring along friends and relatives –the more the merrier!

It's Panto season

Over the week it has been lovely to see so many children taking part in the different performances in school. Next week will see Miss Shepherd's, Miss Cullis and Miss Cruikshanks children take to the stage.

Newsletter... the future

Please remember that after the Christmas holidays that we are going paperless with the schools newsletter. There will be paper copies held in a stand next to the school office for those that do not have internet access. We hope to utilise Eschools and Facebook to promote events and send out information to parents.
